

FINNISH TOURIST ASSOCIATION

INNS
AND
COMMUNICATIONS
1935

NOTE.

On all prices mentioned below members of the Association are granted a discount of 10 per cent on production of membership-card for the current year. (The reduction does not extend to members' families or persons in their company, nor is any discount allowed on alcoholic beverages, the tariff for which is fixed by the Alcohol Company.) Tips are not accepted in establishments maintained by the Association. Instead, an extra charge of 10 per cent for service is added to bills for food and accomodation.

Inquiries should be addressed to the offices of the Association, Aleksanterinkatu 7 a, Helsinki, except during the period in which the inns are open, when requests for rooms to be reserved should be addressed direct to the respective inns.

All establishments maintained by the Association are equipped with telephones.

RAPIDS-BOAT SERVICE ON THE OULU RIVER.

The rapids-boats, which are of the same model as the boats formerly used for conveying tar down the rapids, accomodate 18 passengers. They leave from the quay beside the Vaala Hotel. The journey down the first rapids takes about 1 hour. Passengers transfer at Nuojua to a train, which takes them past the still waters and calmer stretches of the current to Ojalanoja stopping-place; here passengers re-embark in rapids-boats, which shoot the Pyhäkoski Rapids down to Muhos. The whole journey takes about 5 hours.

Tickets: Vaala—Nuojua 50 mks, Ojalanoja—Muhos 55 mks. Both stretches 100 mks.

No luggage is taken in the rapids-boats; luggage is carried free of charge by rail from Vaala to Muhos.
